

Sounding to Source

Uisce na hÉireann, Duíl, Omos
Celebrating Abhainn an Lagáin, Co. Down

The College of Sound Healing Eire invite you to a joyous ceremony to honour the precious water of our land.

With the understanding that water holds the imprint of our history, our thoughts and emotions, we gather our intent to reconnect with the cleansing, life giving and healing intelligence of water.

This is the 4th and final Source ceremony in Ireland for 2015, beginning at the Shannon pots, then the Liffey, on to the Lee and now we celebrate the Lagan. In honoring the source of these rivers, we are honoring the whole of the land of Ireland including the major cities of Limerick, Dublin, Cork and Belfast.

Sunday 20th September, 2015 at 2pm

Together lets remember and celebrate our origin in sound and water!

Sacred sound, poetry and song.

Please bring instruments and any offerings of flowers, prayers etc.. that you wish to bless and connect with Abhainn an Lagáin

Children, Adults, Elders, All are so very welcome. You may wish to bring some sandwiches for a picnic after.

For those travelling long distances, group accomodation on the Sat will be arranged, with meditation and shared meal
